SHAMELESS WEBSITE PLUG
BI.UTAH.EDU/DATA-GOVERNANCE

DATA GOVERNANCE MISSION STATEMENT

Utilize data management standards, data models, collaboration, and transparency to help departments expand their data usage and analysis.

WEBSITE CURRENT PAGES

Data Governance Homepage

- Data governance mission statement
- Newsletter archive (be in the know)
- University Policy defined data governance roles

Institutional Definitions

All approved definitions that have been submitted to the iData Cookbook website (utah.datacookbook.com) and approved by functional area data stewards.

Search by keyword or functional area.

Coming Attractions

Let's focus on areas that matter and really make data governance a positive resource.

Data Governance KPI

Recognize what people are doing

Data Cookbook
- Number of Active users
- Number Definitions Created
- Number of Definitions Approved

Policy Updates
- Date policy updated
- Changes to policy
- Number of formalized Data Stewards

Data Lineage

Big project (Several months out)

Project goals:
- Identify a functional areas' general data
- What systems are being used
- Who is requesting/accessing data
- Process to request information

Thomas Howa, Associate Director for Business Intelligence – tom.howa@utah.edu
Susan Schaefer, Data Governance Analyst – susan.schaefer@utah.edu
Graduate Intern – Open position

We are working on creating a viable DG program that will help individuals achieve their data goals.

*This newsletter will be sent out monthly to keep the BI community informed on progress and highlight industry standards that show good business practices.